CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

MAY 18, 2017

Fed. R. Civ. P. 83(b) provides that “[a] judge may regulate practice in any manner consistent with federal law, rules adopted under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2072 and 2075, and the district’s local rules.” Pursuant to that authority, and in an effort to streamline proceedings, reduce unnecessary and costly motions practice, and “to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action and proceeding” before me, Fed. R. Civ. P. 1, this Standing Case Management Order (the “Case Management Order”) shall govern in all proceedings assigned to me, until and unless expressly superseded. Although this Case Management Order places formal requirements on the manner in which cases shall proceed, it is intended only to more effectively channel the efforts of litigants and allocate the resources of the Court. Nothing herein is intended to modify or abridge any substantive rights of any litigant.

A. EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDER

- a. This Case Management Order is effective upon filing as to any parties who already have appeared.
- b. If this Case Management Order is entered before the summons and complaint have been served upon all defendants, a copy of this Case Management Order shall be served upon any unserved defendants simultaneously with the summons and complaint, in any manner authorized by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c).
- c. If this Case Management Order is entered after the summons and complaint have been served upon all defendants, but before all defendants have appeared, plaintiff shall serve a copy of this Case Management Order on all defendants who have not yet appeared in a manner consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b) and reasonably calculated to provide prompt, actual notice of this Case Management Order. Such service is to be effected within three (3) business days of entry of this Case Management Order, unless good cause is shown as to why service cannot be effected within that time.
- d. With respect to parties who had not appeared at the time of this Case Management Order is issued upon the docket, this Case Management Order is effective immediately upon receipt. However, nothing herein is to be construed so as to penalize any party who violates the terms of this Case Management Order without having received actual notice of its contents.

See Fed. R. Civ. P. 83(b).
