Hackman Vs J. G. Wentwo-ORDER

18040127600032

3. Plaintiff Patrick Hackman is appointed class representative of the class defined in paragraph 1 above.
4. The proposed settlement, as described in the Settlement Agreement, is PRELIMINARILY APPROVED, subject to further submissions and further findings at the fairness hearing described in paragraph 8 below. The parties have until fourteen (14) days prior to the fairness hearing to file any papers in support of the final approval of the settlement and until seven (7) days prior to the fairness hearing to file papers in response to any objections to the settlement. In addition, class counsel shall have fourteen (14) days prior to the fairness hearing to file all papers in support of their request for the payment of attorney's fees and litigation expenses from the settlement fund.
5. The Notice Form attached to this order is approved as to form and content and shall be distributed to class members in the manner described in the Settlement Agreement.
6. Any requests for exclusion from the settlement must be post-marked no later than forty-nine (49) days after the mailing of the notice by class counsel.
7. Any objections to the settlement must be post-marked no later than forty-nine (49) days after the mailing of the notice by class counsel.
8. A fairness hearing will be conducted on September 9, 2019, in courtroom 650, Philadelphia City Hall at 11 am. During the fairness hearing, the court will consider the parties' arguments in favor of final approval of the settlement, any objections, and will hear argument from individuals who wish to be heard.
